"Back to School"

By Tami Hoffman

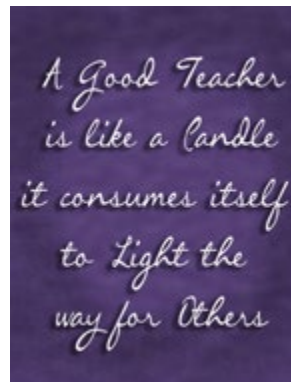

The new school term begins...

Meet Jackson Muwuliza, Director of Mountain of Olives School and 2nd grade Teacher, Ms. Irene Byobona. I'm sure you have heard the saying, it takes a village to raise a child. Well, it also takes a village to make a good school GREAT!!

Teachers inspire the hopes of today and the dreams of tomorrow. Teachers encourage minds to think, hands to create and hearts to love, and teachers change the world one child at a time. The new school term will begin the end of February and the children will attend school in their new building. There is much excitement within the village.

Hoffman Family Foundation along with Rays of Grace and Mountain of Olives School which includes a staff of 15 teachers will partner TOGETHER to make sure these children receive the best education possible for this community. God has created these teachers in His wisdom and His grace to help these children learn to make our world a better and wiser place. I am so thankful for their hearts of gold to receive and serve this school in excellence.

"For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, "Plans to Prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you Hope and a Future." Jeremiah 28:11

“ I Love Teachable Moments ”

My granddaughters called me in November and asked me if I would help them with a school project. “Operation Christmas Child”. I was very excited to do this project with them. They are learning not to just look in the mirror but to look outside the window for there is a huge world just waiting for them to make a difference in someone’s life.

A small shoebox can have a huge impact transforming children and their families around the world. We chose to pack five shoe boxes because the number 5 represents GRACE. I love the way children write letters to each other. The “Power of LOVE” truly does transform lives. I encourage you not to miss these golden opportunities teaching and having fun at the same time with your children and grandchildren.

Robert Weds His Beloved Sarah on January 23, 2016

The Director of HFF, Robert Kiwanuka, joined hands in marriage with his beloved Sarah on January 23, 2016. I was honored to attend this beautiful wedding ceremony in Kampala, Uganda. And the Ugandans know how to throw a party. It was the highlight to starting off the new year.

There is a saying...
Never marrying the one you can live with,
Marry the one you can't live without...

If you can find a truly good wife, she is worth more than precious gems! Proverbs 31:10
And He found her !❤

CONGRATULATIONS...

Christmas in Kampala

December 2015 HFF had the privilege of serving, blessing and loving the slum children that live close to our office in Kampala. These are the poorest of the poor children. Most cannot attend school because they have no money for school fees. They are definitely the underprivileged children in this area. They were so happy when we provided a Christmas party on their behalf.

We celebrated with a warm lunch, a small gift bag and Christmas cake. And even Santa paid them a visit. They were so very very happy. Many of these children have very little to eat and their only gift they received for Christmas was a small gift bag from HFF. They loved their Christmas stickers. Just like my granddaughter in America. I wanted them to know how very special they are to us and I never want them to be forgotten. Thank you for partnering with us as we continue to leave a legacy of love transforming lives and communities even in the smallest of ways.

Mountain of Olives New School Term

Robert Kiwanuka, Director of HFF and HFF staff is working with the teachers to prepare for the new school term. We now have the structure and many items are needed. We are fundraising for desks, chairs, and text books. Would you consider partnering with us in this endeavor?

These children deserve to have the chance to a bright and rewarding future. Will you help me give them a chance? Your contributions are 100% tax-deductible and 100% of your donation goes directly to the project. Thank you for opening your heart to these that are the least among us. Their lives will be changed forever.
